Two Twirlers Win Awards In National Competition

Two national championship trophies and titles were brought back to Murray over the past weekend by Buffy Stokes and Kimberly Johnson. The titles were won at the America's Youth On Parade contest held on the campus of Notre Dame University at South Bend, Ind.

Buffy, the reigning Kentucky State solo champion, won the 1976 National Strutting title in her age division and Buffy and Kimberly combined to win the National Duet Championship over a field of 87 duets from around the world.

Girls and boys from as far away as Japan, Mexico and Canada participated in the contest, which is sponsored by the National Baton Twirling Association each year in July.

"This spectacular event is not only a contest but a place where twirlers, parents and instructors from around the world are united in friendship," a spokesman said.

To climax the week-long contest of champions, "the big show" is held on Saturday evening. This year's event featured Kenny Rogers, Rene' Simard of Canada, the Bellamy Brothers and Marianne Gordon of Hee-Haw fame.

Miss Stokes also won a medal for placing in the top ten in the National Hoop and Miss Johnson was presented a medal for placing eighth in the strutting.

These twirlers were representatives of the Sandy Coleman Twirling Academy of Murray and were escorted to the week-long event by their instructor, Sandy Coleman.

Buffy is the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Coleman and Kimberly is the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson.

Murray State Is Awarded LEAA Grant

WASHINGTON, D. C.—U. S. Congressman Carroll Hubbard today announced Murray State University has been awarded $11,200 by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the U. S. Department of Justice.

The funds are awarded for the purpose of making grants and loans to law enforcement students attending participating universities. The award reflects the appropriation approved by Congress and the President.

Sidewalk Sale Scheduled In Murray This Weekend

Murray's gigantic City-Wide Sidewalk Sale will be held Friday and Saturday, August 6th and 7th. Tagged the biggest sidewalk sale in Kentucky, this event will include sales from almost all shopping centers and the downtown center. This year, shopping centers participating will be Bel-Air Center, Central Center, Dixieland Center, Northside Center, Olympic Center and almost 100 per cent of the stores in the downtown area.

Murray's Sidewalk Sale is unique in the fact that it is truly city-wide and the fact that participating merchants offer the merchandise at give-away prices," a spokesman said. Merchandise of every type will be piled high on the sidewalk and the streets. In addition most merchants have sales going on inside the store. In case of rain, the merchandise is returned to the store, and then returned to the sidewalk as soon as the rain stops. Murray has never had a complete rainout.

The annual Sidewalk Sale has taken on the flavor of a giant homecoming, with friends returning to Murray for a day of bargain hunting and reunions. Store clerks and shoppers are inclined to wear about anything they want for the event.

The Chamber of Commerce has estimated that 40,000 people will be in Murray for the two-day shopping spree.

Stores will be open during their normal schedule.

Attempts To Identify Mysterious Legionnaire's Disease Continues

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Researchers say they don't know when they will be able to identify the mystery "legionnaire's disease" that has claimed 21 lives in Pennsylvania and sent more than 140 people to the hospital in three states.

There were no signs the outbreak was abating, and officials planned a statewide check of Pennsylvania hospitals today for a more accurate picture of the situation.

"The disease has not leveled off," state Health Secretary Leonard Bachman said Tuesday. "Apparently both the number of deaths and the number of new cases have increased and are increasing."

More than 1,000 federal and state medical researchers have been mobilized to identify the disease. At the federal Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, researchers planned today to examine the first cultures grown from tissue samples taken from victims of the illness.

The cultures could provide a clue. "We are ruling out nothing," said Dr. Walter Dowdle, director of virology at the center. "This could be anything from an infectious disease to a toxin."

All of the known victims of the disease — including two hospitalized in New Jersey and one in New York — attended or were in some way connected with a state American Legion convention in Philadelphia that ended 11 days ago.

It was earlier reported a Connecticut man also had the disease, but Connecticut health officials later said he does not have it.

The 21st victim, James Sykes, 29, of Pittsburgh, died early today at Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh. Hospital officials said he had attended the convention and showed the same symptoms as other victims.

Expansion Of Center Announced

Several changes are planned in the Central Shopping Center, according to officials here.

Kroger plans to build a new 28,000 square foot "super store," to be located at the north end of the shopping center. Gambles Hardware also plans to build a new store between the new Kroger facility and the Cine Theatre.

Roth's Department Store, of Paducah, plans to move into the building now occupied by Kroger.

No official announcement has been made on the dates for beginning construction, and final plans have not been completed by the three stores at this time.

Sales Slow Here On Personalized Plates

Calloway County Court Clerk Marvin Harris says offers from the state on personalized license plates are getting little response in the local area.

September 1 is the deadline for applications for the personalized license tags. Harris has the applications, which may be sent to the state for the special tags.

Cost of the tags is $26, in addition to the regular $12.50 cost for normal license plates.

Any combination of up to six numbers or letters may be requested by individuals, but must be approved by the state.

Death Of Jerry Litton And Family Cast Pall On Election

By The Associated Press
Rep. Jerry Litton climbed into a small plane in Chillicothe, Mo. for the short flight to Kansas City, hoping to celebrate his nomination to the U.S. Senate with his wife and two children.

The votes were still being counted Tuesday evening when the plane crashed 20 minutes later, killing the Litton, his wife, Sharon, and their two children, Linda, 13, and Scott, 12. The pilot and the pilot's son also died.

Early today, the votes were counted,

Cloudy and Warmer

Partly cloudy and a little warmer Thursday with a chance of thundershowers. Highs in the mid to upper 80s. Chance of thundershowers Friday. Rain chances are 30 per cent Thursday.

giving Litton, 39, the Democratic nomination to the Senate.

The selection of a candidate now rests with the Missouri Democratic Central Committee.

Litton's death cast a pall over a day in which there were primary elections in four states.

In Michigan, Rep. Donald Riegle, a liberal who bolted the Republican party three years ago in what he said was dismay over President Nixon, won the Democratic nomination for the Senate. He had trailed in the polls behind Michigan Secretary of State Richard Austin, who was striving to become the first elected black Democratic senator.

Riegle will face Marvin Esch, a Republican congressman who easily won his party's nomination.

Litton defeated Rep. James

Symington and former Gov. Warren Hearnes for the seat that is being vacated by Symington's father, Sen. Stuart Symington, who is retiring at 75.

Missouri voters also defeated a controversial proposal to allow limited aid for private schools.

In Idaho, Rep. George Hansen, who had been fined $2,000 by a federal judge last year for failing to report campaign law violations, easily won renomination over two other Republicans. State Sen. Stan Kress, 32, a school superintendent and farmer, won the Democratic nomination to Hansen's seat.

In Kansas, Republicans chose Ross Freeman, a Topeka lawyer, to oppose Democratic Rep. Martha Keyes in November. The veteran Joe Skubitz, the only Republican congressman with opposition, was renominated easily.

A report was made on the project for Western State Hospital with a decision being made to have one more month for each member to bring their items to be taken to the hospital.

Special thanks go to Kim Baker, Lynn Richerson, Rhonda Garland and Tammy Hutson for their help at the Little Miss Pageant.

A dinner meeting will be held August 16 at 6:00 p. m. to work on the program to be given at Family Night.

Dear Abby

How Much Interest
Behind This Loan?

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: There is a divorcee in my husband's office who has a small child and lots of problems. I really blew my stack when Paul told me that he lent her $1,500 so she could have (are you ready for this?) silicone implants to increase the size of her breasts!

This girl told Paul that a psychologist told her that her feelings of insecurity stemmed from the fact that she had always been flat-chested, and the silicone implants would make her feel more womanly and self-confident.

Abby, I don't want to appear unreasonable, but I can't see where the size of this girl's breasts are anything my husband should be concerned with. What are your thoughts on the subject?

SHORT FUSE IN LONGVIEW

DEAR SHORT: At least your husband made a clean breast of his uplifting generosity. Ask him what the terms of the loan were—ALL of them.

DEAR ABBY: A year ago I married a childless widower. He had been happily married for over 20 years until his first wife died five years ago. I was a widow with grown children. Everyone told me how lucky I was to get him because he was very well-to-do.

He is a good husband, but I feel like a substitute for his first wife. He still carries her picture in his wallet instead of mine, and on my birthday and at Christmas he presents me with a piece of her jewelry. I feel uncomfortable wearing her things in the presence of those who remember seeing them on her.

I have made a very nice home for him, but I almost feel as though I am working for my room and board—and bedroom privileges. I'm not a mercenary, but I long for some identity of my own.

I've always kept the memory of my first husband from intruding into this marriage. Why do I feel like an intruder myself?

NUMBER TWO

DEAR NUMBER TWO: Because you don't have the courage to tell him that (a) it hurts you that he carries his deceased wife's picture in his wallet instead of yours, and (b) you don't enjoy hand-me-down jewelry.

DEAR ABBY: Although my wife is reasonable most of the time, she refuses to acknowledge that it is her duty to hop out of bed first in the morning and get the coffee going. We have a double bed and established routines make it impractical for us to arise simultaneously.

I hope you will admonish my spouse for her unwifely and stubborn non-action.

VICTIM OF FEMALE CHAUVINIST

DEAR VIC: You rattled the wrong cage. By whose decree is it your wife's duty to hop out of bed first? I think you should compromise and alternate.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

David Bland Named New Commissioner

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Last year, Kentucky hired an out-of-state consulting firm to chart a course for its beleaguered corrections system.

Now a member of the firm will carry out some of his own recommendations in his new job as commissioner of the state Bureau of Corrections.

Gov. Julian Carroll announced Tuesday that the new commissioner is David Bland. He was sworn in by Kentucky Supreme Court Justice Pleas Jones in the governor's office.

Bland, 37, of Raleigh, N.C., has worked for the past two and one-half years for Carkhuff Associates, Inc., the Massachusetts-based consulting firm that drew up a "master plan" for Kentucky prisons.

Bland said he plans "major changes" in the corrections system, including a "major depopulation" of the Kentucky State Penitentiary near Eddyville and an increase in correctional industries so inmates may keep busier in prison and emerge better trained.

In announcing Bland's appointment, Carroll declined to comment on the past administration of the Bureau of Corrections.

Bland replaces Charles J. Holmes, who resigned at Carroll's request May 7 following a four-year tenure marked by persistent criticism and investigations of the corrections system.

Investigations in the past few years have included probes by a state legislative Correctional Facilities Review Committee and an in-house Bureau of Corrections investigation on drug control procedures at the Eddyville penitentiary.

The governor's Select Advisory Commission on Prisons, which issued its report in May, concluded that there were drug problems, deaths for which it was "especially difficult if not impossible" to determine the causes, abuses involving prison industries, and other problems at the state penitentiary.

Penitentiary Supt. Henry Cowan was forced to resign after the commission issued its report.

Justice Secretary John L. Smith, named by Carroll as acting corrections commissioner, said at the time that he and his "task force management team" would "make the Kentucky corrections system a model for the nation."

He announced a plan for improving the system, saying the plan was based on the Carkhuff report issued in January.

And while he had previously predicted that it would be October before a new corrections commissioner was named, Smith said Tuesday that "the restructuring of the bureau has gone faster and more effectively than we anticipated."

"With Dr. Bland's action-oriented philosophy of progressive corrections, we felt he was the right man for the job and that the time was now right to ask the governor for his appointment," Smith said.

The governor agreed. "He is the man responsible for many of the new directions the bureau will be taking," Carroll said.

Judge's Ruling To Be Appealed

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — An importer of jackets here is appealing a federal judge's ruling ordering the seizure of 35,000 men's and boy's lightweight jackets.

Webster Sportswear, the importer, is appealing the decision of U. S. District Court Judge Charles M. Allen. Allen said the jacket linings don't meet federal minimum standards for flammability and should be destroyed.

The U. S. Consumer Product Safety Commission filed the complaint over the jackets. Allen issued his ruling at the direction of the 6th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

Demonstration Ends In Winchester, Ky.

WINCHESTER, Ky. (AP) — A demonstration by the wives of some Winchester policemen outside the courthouse here has ended, authorities report.

The women ended the demonstration after Police Chief Billy Claypool explained that the city has a meeting planned Thursday to discuss the grievances raised by policemen, as well as members of the fire and sanitation departments.

The women began demonstrating last Wednesday, claiming that Winchester police officers were victims of low wages and poor working conditions.

Striking Workers Dispersed At Plant

LEWISPORT, Ky. (AP) — More than 70 striking employees at the Lewisport plant of the Martin-Marietta aluminum company were dispersed after the company obtained a temporary order limiting the number of pickets.

Neither the company nor the local of the United Steelworkers Union has offered any explanation for the walkout, which began on Monday.

UL Trustees Affirms
Miller Endorsement

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The University of Louisville Board of Trustees has affirmed its endorsement of President James G. Miller.

In a special meeting Tuesday, the trustees unanimously approved Miller's dismissal of Dr. Alan Johnson as dean of the U of L Graduate School last week.

The trustees officially voiced their confidence in Miller's action and his administration.

Ford Urges Rejection Of Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wendell H. Ford, D-Ky., has urged a Senate committee to reject the nomination of Thomas Longshore to the Tennessee Valley Authority board of directors.

Ford said Tuesday in a letter to Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee, that he had delayed making a decision on the nomination until the committee had completed a review and public hearings.

Ford said he had "concluded that Longshore's lack of experience with public power and his long association with private utilities is philosophically incompatible with the goals and purposes of TVA."

Longshore has been an official of the Alabama Power Co.

A vacancy on the TVA board has existed since May 1975. Ford said, however, "a desire for expediency to fill the job must not take precedence over our responsibility to insure maximum responsiveness by the TVA board to the public need."

News In Brief From Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although the official start of his campaign is a month away, Jimmy Carter emerged from his Georgia farm to make a slashing attack against President Ford, criticizing Ford's leadership and labeling the Republicans "a party of backwardness." Carter also predicted the Republicans soon will launch "vicious personal attacks" against him. The Democratic presidential nominee was in Washington today to confer with Democratic National Committee officials.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government regulators are going to scrutinize the auto industry's economic structure in what may be the first skirmish in an antitrust battle against the U.S. auto giants, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler. The Federal Trade Commission announced Tuesday that it is proceeding with a full-scale probe that its staff called for last November. The investigation itself is expected to be time-consuming, and if the government finally decides to file antitrust charges, a court battle is certain to stretch on for years.

WASHINGTON (AP) — While medical scientists puzzle over the mysterious deaths in Pennsylvania, Congress is moving ahead with a previously stalled federal insurance plan that is expected to clear the way for the government's swine-flu vaccination program. "We hope to get this bill passed before the Republican National Convention," said Rep. Paul Rogers, D-Fla., after his House health subcommittee approved a measure Tuesday to make the government responsible for paying any damages caused by the flu shots.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The CIA used federal narcotics agents to administer experimental drugs to unwitting informants and criminal suspects in a program aimed at finding chemicals that could alter human behavior, according to newly declassified government documents. According to the documents, the technical services division of the CIA contracted with officials of what was then known as the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics to have mind-influencing drugs tested on unwitting subjects.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate wants the federal government to pay you up to $225 to improve the insulation in your home. Under an amendment approved by the Senate on Tuesday night, the government would pay 30 per cent of the first $750 in costs for buying and installing insulation, storm windows and doors, caulking and weatherstripping. The plan is one of several amendments to an omnibus tax bill. A separate provision would let some homeowners cut their taxes by up to $1,000 by installing a heat pump.

Across The Nation

LOS ANGELES (AP) — William and Emily Harris are reported confident, and defense attorneys say they are "encouraged that it's taking this much time" to reach a verdict in the Harrises' trial on kidnaping, robbery and assault charges. "The longer the jury's out the more encouraged we are," chief defense attorney Leonard Weinglass said after the jury ended its fourth day of deliberations without a decision.

CHOWCHILLA, Calif. (AP) — Stringent security lined this small farming community today for court appearances by three young men accused in the abduction of 26 school children and their bus driver. Madera County Sheriff Ed Bates said deputies would be posted on rooftops along the two blocks of main street. Outside help was available, and the entire 12-man Chowchilla Police Department was on duty. The precautions were taken for the arraignment of Frederick N. Woods and James Schoenfeld, both 24, at Chowchilla's tiny Justice Court. Schoenfeld's brother, Richard, 22, who pleaded innocent last week, planned to argue for reduction of his $1 million bail.

LOVELAND, Colo. (AP) — The flood-ravaged Big Thompson Canyon "looks like a capricious god danced amok in the place" Gov. Richard Lamm said after seeing the area where nearly 100 persons died. "There is movement. The people are coming back. The healing process has begun," Lamm flew by helicopter over the once majestically beautiful vacation area Tuesday and said while the devastation was great, the scene was more encouraging than it had been the morning after the rain-spawned flooding.

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A balky robot arm on the Viking 1 lander has jammed for the second time, thwarting scientists' efforts to make an organic analysis of the highly active Martian soil that could determine if it holds life. A decision on how to get the arm moving again was expected today.

Around The World

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Efforts to evacuate more wounded from the Tal Zaatar camp and an armistice to end the 16-month-old Lebanese civil war bogged down today. An International Red Cross convoy to the besieged Palestinian refugee camp in Christian east Beirut was delayed leaving the Moslem sector. Security sources said Red Cross delegate Jean Hoefliger and Arab League mediator Hassan Sabri Kholi were having trouble getting the Christians to renew the temporary cease-fire which enabled them to remove 91 casualties from Tal Zaatar Tuesday.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Thousands of students and other young blacks demonstrated in the Soweto township today and tried to stop workers commuting to Johannesburg. The crowds stoned buses, and students carrying placards disrupted traffic in the segregated ghetto eight miles south of Johannesburg in which more than a million blacks live. The new outbreak appeared to be triggered by the arrest of several student leaders including Hlaku Rachidi, national president of the Black People's Convention. Police sealed off Soweto, and railway officials announced all trains into the township were canceled.

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — The Sudanese government executed 81 men early today for taking part in the abortive attempt to overthrow President Jaafar el-Numairi last month, the official Omdurman Radio announced. The broadcast said 16 other persons were sentenced to prison terms ranging from 10 years to life. Brig. Mohammed Nur Saad, the alleged leader of the rebellion, and 230 others were also tried last week by two special military tribunals. They are awaiting sentencing.

ROME (AP) — Premier Giulio Andreotti takes his minority government's program to Parliament today amid indications that the Communist party will abstain on the vote of confidence and let the new cabinet survive. The 57-year-old Christian Democratic premier kept most of his program secret. But he was expected to promise a vigorous crack-down on tax evasion and an overhaul of the vast government bureaucracy. The Communists urged both reforms.

KPA Considers Action To Force Pay Publication

By SY RAMSEY
 Associated Press Writer
 FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Press Association is considering legal action to force school boards to disclose teachers' salaries in financial statements.

The possibility has been raised by executive director Jesse Shaffer after a second adverse opinion on the matter by the attorney general's office. Such opinions have no force of law.

The latest opinion reiterates that school boards do not have to list individual teacher salaries or names, but merely the lump sum paid for teachers.

After the first opinion several weeks ago, KPA members were notified in a memorandum that "it looks as though a suit for a declaratory judgment against a school board may be in order."

Contacted Tuesday, Shaffer said only that "we will be deciding this week what we're going to do."

The dispute centers around a new amendment in the statute which does away with the requirement for publication of annual individual pay scales.

The attorney general's office said that just the lump sum must be disclosed now, while the KPA contends that the teachers receiving the money also must be identified.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Charles Runyan said in his new opinion that the legislative intent is clear, and added that newspapers have the option to publish individual salaries as a news item, instead of as a paid advertisement.

"The practical result... is that the newspaper... will get paid for publishing the lump sum statement... but not for the factual list of individual salaries — by name of recipient," he said.

"This financial or economic delicacy, which undoubtedly was in the legislative mind, is now viewed favorably by the school boards but apparently is looked upon with disfavor by the newspapers."

"And this is understandable in terms of publication costs of financial statements."

However, as we said in the prior opinion, who can really successfully question legislative policy?"

The attorney general's office also told Ohio County Atty. A. V. Conway that a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision has no effect on the requirement that Kentucky municipalities and counties must pay overtime to employees working more than 40 hours.

The ruling said Congress could not tell states what minimum wages to pay.

The attorney general's office advised state librarian Charles Hinds that the new open records law has no effect on the confidentiality of taped interviews by the state's oral history commission.

"We believe that the tapes covered by (any) agreement may be exempted from public inspection," it said.

In a related opinion, it said personal mental health records kept by a public agency also are exempt from the Open Records Act.

The advice went to Hubert Griffin Jr., counsel for the state human resources department.

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The state Public Service Commission has approved a gas rate increase for the Louisville Gas & Electric Co.

A PSC official said the rate increase will mean an average annual per customer rate increase of about $7.35.

The increase became effective last Sunday and was caused by a similar increase paid by LG&E to its supplier, Texas Gas Transmission Corp., a PSC spokesman said.

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Registry of Election Finance will move its offices from Louisville to reoccupy.

Registry chairman Stanley Chauvin said Tuesday, "We felt we should be near the seat of government, near the people we deal with most."

The office originally was located in Louisville because at that time both Democratic and Republican state headquarters were there.

Mark Fidrych is usually the main attraction when he pitches, but the New York Yankees won't be upstaged by the Birdman of Detroit.

The Yankees showed Tuesday night that they also have a flair for showmanship, sprinkling beans on the mound while the reknown "Bird" was performing.

While the Yankees fed Fidrych "bird seed", Fidrych was feeding the Yankees fastballs. Both Roy White and Oscar Gamble hit them out of the park, helping New York to a dramatic 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers and their flashy rookie.

"I would have loved to beat the Yankees," said Fidrych.

"The crowd didn't come out to see me. They came out to see the Yankees beat me."

Whatever the crowd of 44,909 came out for at Yankee Stadium, they weren't disappointed. They not only got to see their Yankees win, but they also saw Fidrych's showy routine of talking to baseballs, bouncing around the field like a berserk billiard ball and, yes, even eating beans off the mound.

In the other American League games, Kansas City stopped Minnesota 7-1; Cleveland blanked Boston 1-0 in 10 innings; Milwaukee outscored Baltimore 4-2; Oakland whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-3 and California turned back Texas 4-0.

Fidrych, who also gave up a two-run homer to White in the third, suffered only his fourth loss against 11 victories and it marked the first time the flamboyant rookie was defeated when Detroit had scored a run.

Royals 7, Twins 1
Sore-legged Hal McRae hobbled around the basepaths with a double and a home run and Buck Martinez added a two-run double to spark Kansas City over Minnesota and snap the Twins' eight-game winning streak.

The victory raised Kansas City's lead in the American League West to 9 1/2 games over the Twins, who had surged into second place the past week.

Indians 1, Red Sox 0
Dennis Eckersley pitched a three-hitter and Tommy Smith drove in the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the 10th inning as Cleveland ended Boston's four-game winning streak.

Brewers 4, Orioles 2
George Scott drove in two runs on a pair of base hits, leading Milwaukee over Baltimore. The Brewers sewed up the game with a two-run fifth inning that gave them a 3-2 lead. A leadoff double by Von Joshua, a single by Jack Heidemann and a fielder's choice by Robin Yount scored the tying run. The winning run then came home on Scott's single.

A's 7, White Sox 3
Joe Rudi smashed two doubles and a single and drove in two runs to lead Oakland over Chicago. Dick Bosman, 4-0, scattered five hits over five innings and picked up his eighth career victory over the White Sox with relief help from Paul Lindblad and Rollie Fingers, who was credited with his 15th save.

Angels 4, Rangers 0
Paul Hartzell pitched a four-hitter against floundering Texas and journeyman Tommy Davis knocked in two runs as California beat the Rangers. Texas has now lost 21 of its last 26 games to drop from second place to only five games out of the cellar.

R DRUG TOLERANCE WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The word tolerance when applied to drugs is not particularly a good thing. For, it can mean that over a period of time our body has become adjusted to a medicine and the drug will no longer achieve the desired effect it once did.

This tolerance effect can apply to many types of common use drug products—laxatives, cough preparations, skin treatment creams and ointments. With prescription medicines the tolerance effect can be even more serious. We will always caution you when such a possibility exists.

Cardinals Manage To Split Pair With Pirates

By FRANK BROWN

AP Sports Writer

Four runs in the last 38 innings, four losses in the last five games for the Pittsburgh Pirates. It seems there are termites in the Lumber Yard.

That's what people were calling the Pirates earlier in the season, when the power-laden lineup was hitting baseballs out of sight and first place wasn't 13 games away. But in the last eight games, three of which have gone extra innings, just 17 Pittsburgh runs have crossed in 83 innings.

Tuesday night, Don Kessinger of St. Louis drove in more runs than the Pirates could manage in their doubleheader, though Pittsburgh managed to beat the Cardinals 2-1 in the opener before dropping the nightcap 4-2.

Pittsburgh's opening-game triumph went to Jim Rooker, who pitched a six-hitter and drove in a seventh-inning run with a sacrifice fly.

Kessinger, who plated the St. Louis run with an eighth-inning double in the opener, drove in all four in the nightcap.

Dodgers 2, Astros 0

The Dodgers' Burt Hooton surrendered two first-inning singles — to Greg Gross and Cesar Cedeño — but didn't permit a hit the rest of the way in recording only his second victory in eight decisions. Both were shutouts.

Bill Buckner drove home Dave Lopes in the fourth and seventh innings for the offensive power as Los Angeles beat Houston for the eighth time in a row and 14th time in 15 games over two seasons.

Reds 9, Giants 0

Jack Billingham held San Francisco to three hits and Dave Concepcion drove in three runs as the Reds — winners of 17 in 22 since the All-Star break — blasted the Giants for their seventh consecutive triumph.

Cubs 4-5, Phillies 0-8

A grand-slam homer by Garry Maddox powered Philadelphia past Chicago in the nightcap after the Cubs backed Rick Reuschel's nine-hitter with home runs by rookie Wayne Tyrone and Jerry Morales in the opener.

Braves 7, Padres 3

Atlanta's Clarence Gaston,

who had started only two games previously this season, hit two home runs and drove in five in support of Andy Messersmith. "Sometimes I get a little upset about not playing," said Gaston. "When I do, I take extra batting practice and take it out on the ball." Tuesday night, he took his frustration out on San Diego.

Mets 9, Expos 8

Ed Kranepool's 100th career home run, a two-run shot in the eighth inning, lifted the New York over Montreal. The Expos had scored six runs in the seventh and eighth innings to take an 8-7 lead in the wild contest.

Standing On The Firing Line

By Mike Brandon
Sports Editor

Cross May Jump Here In September

The Flying Cross hasn't been flying but may soon. Out of the scene all summer since an injury in a jump at Paducah last May, Cross plans to be jumping again this month.

For those of you who don't know about him, he's Doug Cross, a 25-year-old daredevil from New Burnside, Ill. In June of 1975, at Marion, Ill., he was nearly killed while attempting a world's first, jumping a pyramid of burning hay with a motorcycle.

There were 154 bales of hay in the pyramid and it was stacked about 15 feet high. His helmet fogged up, he missed and wound up with all sorts of broken bones.

Cross is a local story because number one, he is managed by Hillman Lyons of Murray and number two, sooner or later, he plans to jump over a hovering helicopter in Murray, another world's first.

Cross went back to Marion to try and bite the dog that bit him. And in early May of this year, he made the jump just fine and decided to go on tour around the country, making his "Towering Inferno" jump.

On May 18, Cross brought his act to Paducah International Raceway.

Everything went fine except for the landing. He had to bring his 900 cc Harley Davidson Sportster down because of a lack of landing room and when he brought it down, he injured his ankle.

"I tore muscles in the left ankle and that's the main reason I haven't been doing any jumping this summer. I've just been letting my ankle get stronger."

"If it had been my right ankle, I would have been jumping by now but of course, the left leg was the one I broke last year so I've just had to give it extra time," Cross said. Presently, most of his time has been spent working with Lyons on press booklets.

Although nothing has been confirmed, Cross said he is working on the helicopter jump here in Murray.

On August 28, he will be jumping at the highly-prestigious DuQuoin State Fair in Illinois and then in early September, if the contract comes through, Cross will be jumping the helicopter in Murray.

"I would like to make the jump in Murray when school is going on so there will be a larger crowd to watch," Cross said.

If he does come to Murray and jump, nobody will forget it. His jumps are indeed, something to remember.

Jacobs To Return

Cuthbert Jacobs is due to return back to Murray August 12.

Jacobs, the OVC Track Man of the Year in 1976, is now in Washington, D. C. after participating in the Olympics at Montreal.

While in Washington, he is staying with Fred Sowerby, another Olympian and a former member of the Murray State track team.

Jacobs should be able to give us some interesting stories about the Olympics and reading about his experiences should be quite enjoyable.

Sports Has Its Day In Congress

By TOM SEPPY
AP Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three sports entrepreneurs have told Congress of the many problems and pitfalls of owning a team not belonging to one of the established major leagues.

Each cited the lack of a national television contract for income, high salaries for players and the "minor league" tag put on their club as reasons for losing hundreds of thousands of dollars and, in at least one case, millions.

Testifying Tuesday before the House professional sports committee were John Y. Brown Jr. of the American Basketball Association's Kentucky Colonels, A.E. Burgess of the defunct World Football League's Birmingham Vulcans, and Jay P. Moore of the Cleveland Crusaders in the World Hockey Association.

They followed Bob Short, former baseball owner who moved the Washington Senators to Texas in 1971.

Short said there should be baseball in the nation's capital — a pet project for several congressmen. But he cited several conditions, including a favorable lease and better stadium security, that had to be achieved before such a franchise could become successful.

Brown said he believes professional basketball has a good future now that the ABA and the National Basketball Association have merged. But he recommended that steps be taken to eliminate owners who are not in the sport for the business.

"In the horse business, if you don't make a profit in two of seven years then the burden of proof is on you to prove that it isn't a hobby," he said. "There has to be some burden on the owners to make them operate like a business. You won't survive."

He said that although the NBA has failed as much as the ABA in the past 10 years, "the fact is they had national television and standing among the fans. They had stronger and wealthier owners than we did."

"The whole industry has been distorted by the money being thrown around," he said. "I don't blame it on the players. I blame it on the owners who don't operate like a business."

About the short-lived World Football League, Burgess, who was joined by Vulcans former coach and general manager Jack Gotta and part owner Bill Kelce, said the lack of a national television contract during the second year was the principle reason the league failed.

He also said the WFL was "hurriedly and not properly organized."

He said attendance at Birmingham's games dwindled because of the WFL's problems, primarily stemming from the folding of such teams as Chicago, Portland and San Antonio.

Moore, who also is a partner in the Cleveland Indians baseball club, said his club was not successful in Cleveland "because we were in the WHA and not the (older, more established) National Hockey League."

"We were constantly fighting the stigma of not being major league in a city which has the Indians, Browns and the Cavaliers," he said.

In answer to a question, he said the California Seals, an NHL hockey team which has been moved to Cleveland, "will have the overall cost but they can charge more. The NHL seal means something."

TENNIS

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Patricio Cornejo of Chile scored a mild upset in the $85,500 Buckeye Tennis Championship when he ousted sixth-seeded Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Tex., 6-2, 6-2.

Reagan Expects 'Tough Questions' From Uncommitted Miss. Delegates

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Ronald Reagan, launching his final pre-convention campaign swing, can expect "tough questions" from the crucial, uncommitted Mississippi delegation about the man he wants as his running mate, an aide says.

The conservative former California governor planned his first public appearance here today with liberal Sen. Richard S. Schweiker of Pennsylvania. Reagan has made no public appearances or statements since announcing on July 26 that he wanted Schweiker as his vice presidential candidate if he captures the Republican presidential nomination.

Reagan is visiting five crucial states where he hopes to firm up his once-solid support in the South against recent inroads by President Ford and exploit new opportunities in the Northeast. It is his last scheduled campaign outing before the Republican National Convention Aug. 16 in Kansas City.

Billy Mounier, Reagan's Mississippi campaign chairman, said Reagan and Schweiker would meet with delegates in private soon after arriving in Jackson. The two also planned to meet tonight with the 37 members of the Alabama GOP delegation, who are committed to Reagan but have expressed some discontent about Schweiker.

Mounier said Reagan would have to convince delegates that Schweiker is needed on the ticket to ensure a victory.

"I would expect about as tough questions for Sen. Schweiker as you can have," Mounier said.

In the Associated Press delegate survey, Ford has 1,106 of the 1,130 delegates needed for the nomination, and Reagan trails 78 delegates behind at 1,028. There are still 125 uncommitted delegates, including 78 in the five states Reagan planned to visit this week: Mississippi, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Most party leaders had considered Reagan the majority choice of Mississippi's 30 delegates and 30 alternates until he picked Schweiker. A month ago, Reagan predicted a sweep of the delegation after a warm reception here.

After President Ford got a warm reception last week during a visit with delegates, his campaign staff said the President had won as many as 40 delegates and alternates.

The Argonne Forest had been twice tortured, by nature and by man. Created a gullied thicket of dense trees and rocks, it was further ravaged and bloodied by the great World War I battle of Verdun in 1916, when Germany spent 300,000 lives for only 130 square miles of French territory. It was but one instance of the insanity of trench warfare that pitted charging men in wave after wave against the machine gun. On an average day, both sides suffered 7,000 casualties. In a major battle such as the Somme in 1916, the British lost 60,000 men on the very first day — and the fighting in the bootsucking mud of Flanders raged for months longer.

By 1918, in the fourth year of war, Russia had already dropped out, her armies bled white, her government overthrown by Lenin and his Bolsheviks. After Verdun, a mutiny had swept the French army, involving 100,000 men in 52 divisions. But the Central Powers, Germany and Austria-Hungary, were also feeling the strain. The British blockade brought deep hunger and unrest to the German home front. By September, 1918, Austria was demanding that Germany sue for peace.

A major reason was that the Doughboys were coming. The Yanks, taking their nickname from the adobe dust that caked them during the chase after Pancho Villa on the Mexican border two years before, had landed almost 40 divisions since their commander, Gen. John J. Pershing, stepped ashore in France on June 28, 1917.

His men were strong, fresh, bred to the belief their country could do anything. They had not known the scars of the Somme with its 1,300,000 casualties, nor choked on the rolling clouds of mustard gas, nor seen comrades buried alive under the mud of a shell blast at Ypres.

They stode into battle in July, 1918, to the tune of George M. Cohan's "Over There," to help stop the Germans' last great offensive at Belleau Wood and Chateau Thierry, the Second Battle of the Marne.

Now, on September 26, 1918, they go over the top again, across the moonscape of Verdun and the Argonne — "a blind world of whiteness and noise," one officer called it. The air is to drive north, to meet eventually with the British driving east from Flanders and trap the German armies in a giant pouch.

It is a time of heroic tableaux: Col. George S. Patton, his primitive tanks shot from under him, leading his men against German machine guns and firing his two ivory-handled pistols as he runs; Alvin York, a corporal then and a dead-eyed Tennessean, nipping off Germans like squirrels until they surrender en masse. How many had he taken? his commander asks, as the mob passes by.

"Jesus, Lieutenant, I ain't had time to count 'em all yet."

There were, in fact 132.

There, leading the men of his 42nd Rainbow Division, is Douglas MacArthur in a cloth overseas hat. He didn't like helmets. There is Capt. Harry S. Truman, an artillery officer with the 35th Division, and Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, who became America's leading air ace in an age of trailing silk scarves and cognac glasses smashed in the fireplace. And there is Capt. Nelson Holderman, with five wounds, using two rifles as crutches while firing his .45 at the Germans, Capt. Holderman of the "Lost Battalion" which held out, though surrounded, for six days.

And there are the unnamed, such as this 37-mm gun crew manning their weapon in the never-never-again land of the Argonne Forest.

The Yanks make three miles the first day, then gradually bog down in a tangle of supply lines. At their end of the line, the British also slow down after initial success. But between them, they have written the inevitable on the wall.

On October 4, Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany orders his government to wire President Wilson for peace terms. Five weeks later, the War to End Wars ends. Total cost: 8,500,000 dead, including 53,000 Americans.

Road Maps Not As Plentiful At Nation's Service Stations

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

The millions of road maps traditionally given out free at the nation's service stations are changing these days. They are often smaller, there are fewer of them and, in some cases, they cost money.

The problem goes back to 1973. First there was the energy crunch. Service stations no longer needed maps to attract customers. Then there was inflation. Costs rose, and the free map became an expensive proposition for the oil companies.

Today, according to a spokesman for one manufacturer, a consumer looking for a particular type of road map may have to try several places before finding exactly what he or she wants.

There are no nationwide statistics available on how many oil companies still distribute the maps free of charge. "I do know it's not like it once was," said a spokesman for the American Petroleum Institute.

He said some oil companies charge their dealers for the maps, leaving it up to the individual station owner to decide whether to pass the cost on to the consumer. A few stations have installed vending machines and are experimenting with 50- and 75-cent maps.

Conroy V. Erickson, a spokesman for Rand-McNally Inc. of Skokie, Ill., the largest producer of road maps in the country, said the free road map is not dead. But he said many of the oil companies have cut back. "They have gotten out of city maps and... have less ambitious map programs," Regional maps are replacing state maps.

Erickson said one company, which he declined to name, experimented last year with a kind of "minimap," but was dissatisfied and returned to regular maps. He said other companies are buying pads of maps which are smaller and cheaper to produce since they do not require the complex folding of the standard map.

Rand-McNally does not disclose sales figures, but some industry sources have estimated that $11 million worth of road maps are distributed by oil companies each year.

Erickson said between 225 and 250 million maps were given out in 1972, the latest year for which he had complete figures. The number declined sharply in 1973 and 1974, he said. It has started rising again, but the 1976 total still will be less than the 1972 figure.

Americans tend to think of the free map as a universal fixture. Service stations abroad do not give out maps, however, and never have, Erickson said. Even in the United States, the concept of free road maps was not introduced until the late 1930s.

Erickson said Rand-McNally has kept down the cost to oil companies by introducing technological improvements to make manufacturing more efficient. "But of course paper is more expensive," he said, and distribution costs for the oil companies have risen sharply.

The men were reported missing Tuesday, he said.

Renewed System Is Planned At Prisons

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — A renewed system of screening prison inmates for work details and transfers to minimum security facilities will begin soon, Justice Secretary John L. Smith has announced.

Smith, who is acting corrections commissioner, said the new classification system will go into effect "probably later this month" when two new minimum security institutions are scheduled to open.

Deputy Commissioner Al Parke, who drew up the new plan, said screening committees at each state correctional facility will give priority to first offenders and those with a record of non-violent crimes.

The Bureau of Corrections' central office will have final approval over the recommendations.

Smith said the state's first minimum security women's facility and a new farm at the state reformatory near La Grange are both scheduled to open this month.

UK Receives Grant, Masters Program

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A University of Kentucky professor of mechanical engineering is studying how the feathers and the fur of animals insulate them from cold to see if man-made insulation materials can be improved.

Dr. Richard Birkebæk said he and his graduate students have used heat-flow meters and infrared radiometers to detect and measure heat exchange in animal fur. They have used instruments called thermocouples to measure temperatures through skin and fur and the air above the fur.

He said the National Science Foundation has approved his request for a $6,500 grant to continue research into the properties of man-made insulation, based on the data from studies of animal fur and bird feathers.

Animal Insulation Now Being Studied

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The University of Kentucky has received a one year, $92,497 grant to establish a new area of specialization in gerontology as a masters degree program.

The Administration on Aging's Office of Human Development grant is to establish a program to provide administrators, teachers, consultants, trainers, researchers and others with training in the field of aging.

The program begins this month with eight new courses in the College of Social Professions and six other courses in other departments.

Family Evicted From Home Across From Carter's House

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — The old man clenched his gnarled hands as he told how he, his wife and seven children were evicted from the house they occupied across the street from Jimmy Carter's home.

The house where the A.Z. Pittman family lived was just a shack, but it had a garden where the Pittmans grew six kinds of vegetables, and there was room for their pig.

Now they're living in a crowded, bare apartment in a housing project in nearby Americus and they're frightened about the future.

"I hate it so bad I don't know what to do," said Pittman, as he sat on a kitchen chair in his linoleum-floored living room. "My hopes look pretty rough now."

The 67-year-old retired black worker said his landlord, Marlin Poole of nearby De Soto, ordered the family to move in April.

Pittman said Poole told him "the Democratic party had offered him a certain amount of money. He told me he wanted the house torn down."

According to Mrs. Pittman, Poole said that "if Mr. Carter becomes president, they might beautify the property for him, like the park downtown."

The family left July 14, the day Carter was nominated for president, and the house, half-hidden in a group of oak trees across from the ranch-style Carter home, was torn down Wednesday.

Carter says that neither he nor any member of his family requested the eviction of the Pittmans.

"I hate to see them go," he said.

Shortly after his nomination, Carter discovered that the ramshackle wooden house was being demolished, and he went to see Pittman.

"He told me he didn't want to see any of his colored friends leave," said the frail, soft-spoken man. "I said I hated to go."

"I know Mr. Carter didn't have anything to do with it. I've been a friend of Mr. Carter's. I like him. He's a man with high principles."

Land values in Plains have skyrocketed because of its famous native son, and Pittman said he thought Poole wanted to sell the land.

Carter's brother, Billy, who owns much of the land near the nominee's house, said Poole had asked him in May if he were interested in buying the property.

Billy Carter said he told Poole he would like to have the right of first refusal. Nothing more has been said, Carter added.

Billy Carter repeated his brother's statement that the Carter family knew nothing of

Barren River

To Be Lowered

GLASGOW, Ky. (AP) — The Army Corps of Engineers has announced that the water level at Barren River Lake near here will be lowered about three feet this week to create an experimental refuge for migratory wildlife.

Col. James Ellis, Corps district engineer at Louisville, said the water level is being lowered in response to a request from the state Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Ellis said the lower level should not hinder recreational use of the lake.

the eviction until after it happened.

"I didn't care if they stayed for 900 years," Billy said. "They weren't bothering anybody. They certainly weren't bothering Jimmy. I had gone out of my way to make sure they were welcome."

Poole was in Canada and could not be reached for comment.

His son, Michael, said there had been plans to tear down the house for about a year, but there were no plans to develop the property.

Poole's lawyer, Anthony May of Leesburg, said he preferred not to comment about reports that Poole had been asked to tear down the house because it was an eyesore.

Farm Officials Increasing Precautions for Hog Cholera

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky farm officials are increasing their precautions against hog cholera following outbreaks of the swine disease in the east.

The eastern cases have led to hog cholera quarantines on swine herds in parts of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire.

"We are alert to the problem because of this outbreak in the east," state veterinarian Tom S. Maddox said Monday.

"It's principally a garbage feeding problem," said Maddox, director of the Livestock Sanitation Division of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

"We're stepping up our inspection of the garbage feeders," he said.

The cases in the east have involved herds that were fed food scraps.

Pigs fed uncooked pork scraps containing the live virus may contract the disease.

Most Kentucky hogs are fed corn rather than garbage, livestock sanitation Division officials said.

James M. Koepper, chief statistician for the Kentucky Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Louisville, said some 45,000 Kentucky farmers have swine, though most "just have a sow and a few pigs or keep a meat hog or two."

He said 4,000 to 5,000 farmers in the state have 50 to 500 head while only about 300 farmers have herds of 500 or more.

Of these, only 100 to 150 feed their animals on food scraps, which they obtain from large institutions such as restaurants, hospitals and schools.

"They pick up the garbage in the cities," Maddox said. "They're required to cook it for a certain time at a certain temperature."

"We inspect the cookers and check the temperature," he said.

These inspections, normally done once a month, have been increased to two and sometimes three times a month at each farm where hogs are fed garbage.

"We haven't found any problem. We hope we don't," Maddox said.

Koepper agreed. "We hope we can keep our state clean," he said.

Control of hog cholera is vital to the swine industry, though the disease does not affect other farm animals or humans.

In its acute form, it is highly infectious and usually fatal to swine.

NOBLE SKELETONS

PRAGUE (AP) — A rare discovery of graves containing the skeletons of ancient Moravian men has been reported in the town of Nechvalin.

Swords were found with the skeletons, indicating they are the remains of nobility. Another indication that the dead were members of the Great Moravian Empire's upper class were the "Charon coins" found in the mouths of the skeletons. In Greek mythology, Charon was the man who ferried the souls of the dead over the Styx and Acheron rivers. The graves also include a number of gold and silver earrings.

The Great Moravian Empire was a large kingdom that flourished during the 9th century, in what now is south-central Czechoslovakia.

HEARTLINE is a service for senior citizens of all ages. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems—fast. If you have a question or a problem not answered in these columns, write HEARTLINE, 8514 N. Main St., Dayton, Ohio 45415. Senior citizens will receive prompt replies, but you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The most useful replies will be printed in this column.

Heartline: I once received widow's Black Lung benefits. The payments stopped when I remarried. I am no longer married. Can I collect my Social Security Black Lung benefits again?—K. S.

Answer: Yes, entitlement is not terminated when a widow remarries, just the monthly benefits. In order to reactivate your monthly benefits contact your Social Security district office and ask them to send in a request to resume payments. You do not need to file a new claim.

Heartline: Is a veteran eligible for the car allowance if he has lost the use of a limb (service-connected), although it is not rated 100 per cent for his service-connected disabilities?—J. K. L.

Answer: The veteran does not have to be rated 100 per cent in order to be eligible for an automobile grant. If he has lost the use of a limb which is service-connected, he meets the eligibility requirements.

Heartline: I am 65 years old and a diabetic. I have just gone on Medicare. Does Medicare cover my insulin and insulin needles?—F. I.

Answer: Insulin and insulin needles are not covered services under the Medicare program. For people not understanding Medicare or for those not knowing the covered services, Heartline has developed Heartline's "Guide to Medicare." This book covers the entire Medicare program in easy to understand question and answer form.

The book is in large print and covers many of the problem areas of Medicare and also gives information as to how Heartline can help you when you have a problem with Medicare. To order send $1.50 to Heartline's "Guide to Medicare," 8514 N. Main Street, Dayton, Ohio 45415. This book is completely guaranteed and if you are not satisfied you can return it for a full refund. Please allow 30 days for delivery.

Heartline: Will Social Security expect my sons or daughters to support me before giving me Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits?—S. K. F.

Answer: No. The Supplemental Security Income program does not hold immediate relatives responsible for support. It is possible, however, that the living arrangements of an eligible SSI beneficiary or any continuing support given him by a relative may effect his benefit level.

Fruit Pits and Bowel Obstruction

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

Pitted fruits constitute a major portion of the diet for many millions of people. The chances are that pits are frequently swallowed, yet only rarely do symptoms result from the passage of these pits through the intestinal tract.

In view of this rarity of signs and symptoms from ingestion of pits, it presents an unusual problem of diagnosis for the physician and a possible delay in carrying out the required treatment. It may not occur to the patient or the physician that a fruit seed could be the cause of trouble.

Writing in a recent issue of Archives of Surgery, a publication of the American Medical Association, J. Edson Price, M.D., and his colleagues from the Department of Surgery, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, reported four cases of bowel obstruction resulting from fruit pits.

Ingested pits are usually whole. They have fibrous, woody coverings that are essentially indigestible, and act like a foreign body during their passage through the gastrointestinal tract.

X-ray findings may not be helpful because the density or weight of the pit is similar to that of the adjacent tissue, making a contrast X-ray shadow impossible or insufficient to outline the foreign body. The only X-ray finding may be partial or total intestinal obstruction. This requires surgical correction. Discovering a fruit pit as the obstructing object may come as a surprise to the operating surgeon.

In the four cases reported by these authors, each was an elderly or older woman. In several instances, the pit was lodged in the bowel because of a pre-existing partial obstruction from another cause, including cancer of the large intestine.

It is probable that children frequently swallow fruit pits, but the walls of their intestinal tracts are usually able to tolerate adequate stretching to allow passage.

While the pits helped to bring about needed surgery for other conditions in these cases, the related obstruction was an undesirable hazard.

Education may be able to reduce instances of ingested fruit pits.

Q: Mrs. S. K. explains that a friend and her husband were impressed at the use of a drill biopsy for breast cancer so that they knew before going to surgery that the tumor was cancer. She asks for comment.

A: In experienced hands, drill biopsy is accurate in diagnosing ahead of surgery whether a suspicious breast tumor is benign or cancerous. Under local anesthetic, a fast-rotating drill cores out a small section of tissue, which can be studied under a microscope.

The findings can be discussed with the patient and family whether the tumor was malignant and the proposed treatment explained and agreed upon, including radical surgery if it is needed.

The drill biopsy usually is less expensive than excisional biopsy and requires less time.

Q: Mrs. V. C. says that her 8-year-old daughter goes to bed regularly between 9 and 9:30 p.m. and sleeps until 7:15 a.m. on school mornings, but she often appears to have trouble going to sleep, compared to her older brother who is usually asleep as soon as his head hits the pillow. Her daughter appears healthy but sleeps longer on weekends. Is there reason for concern?

A: Children, like adults, have different sleep habits and requirements. You may be overly concerned, especially if your daughter is doing well in school and gets along with other children and her teachers and family.

The extra weekend sleep may be habit, rather than evidence of significant need for more sleep. She may not have any compelling reason to get up on Saturday or Sunday and therefore prefers to stay in bed.

One of those days in which your innate directness will not entirely pay off. If you need a favor, use a subtle and imaginative approach.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)
Not a good day for trying to push pet schemes; for taking the initiative generally. Concentrate on routine activities.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)
A good day for occupational interests. Outlook especially favorable if you will be dealing with superiors.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)
A day of surprises! Not only will someone you've helped in the past return the favor, but an added bonus "thrown in" will delight you.

VIRGO

Accent is on family relationships now. In fact, a parent or senior relative could give you some highly welcome encouragement; perhaps even financial help.

LIBRA

Bonuses indicated from past efforts. These should give you new incentive, perhaps a wholly new approach in certain areas. Long-range plans favored.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
Some intrigue likely in occupational circles. YOU remain discreet and keep involvement to a minimum.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
A new work assignment may seem difficult to carry out, but a comprehensive discussion with close associates will produce useful ideas, guidance.

YOU BORN TODAY are a highly gifted individual, with a great love of "show." Crowds, pageantry, pomp and ceremony thrill you — all the more if you are an integral part of it. You always aspire, to be in the spotlight and, fortunately, you have the talents required to put you there. You would make an outstanding entertainer — either dramatic or comedic — and your gift for words could lead to an eminent writing career. Other fields for which you have an affinity: the law, medicine or chemistry — and you could succeed in any of them — but you could also excel in business — in the areas of salesmanship or promotion. Stephens Proposes Computer To Help Attorneys Prepare Cases FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — State Atty. Gen. Robert Stephens is trying to get Kentucky's Supreme Court justices and state agency lawyers interested in leasing a computer that can help attorneys prepare cases.

Stephens believes the use of computers for legal research may be standard procedure in the not-too-distant future.

He was one of about 30 judges, lawyers and others who watched a demonstration of such a computer Monday in the state Supreme Court conference room.

Several state Supreme Court justices were present, as well as state public defender Jack Farley and lawyers and other representatives from many state agencies.

Harry Helesen, a vice president of Mead Data Central, Inc., of New York, demonstrated the company's Lexis computer.

A terminal was installed in the conference room and connected by telephone to a computer in Dayton, Ohio.

The apparatus resembled a typewriter keyboard with a television set next to it. A few lawyers in the group of about 30 described cases with which to test the machine.

Helesen typed legal descriptions of the cases and after a brief wait, related cases were listed on the screen.

He showed how, if a lawyer wants to examine a particular case, the entire court decision in the case can be displayed on the screen or printed on paper for the lawyer to keep.

The computer's memory contains the U.S. Legal Code and several state codes as well as court decisions, which lawyers use as precedents in making their arguments.

The company leases the electronic equipment for about $500 a month and charges an additional fee of about $1 a minute for the time the machine is used.

Mead has quoted a figure of about $100,000 to enter 20 years of Kentucky court cases in the computer memory.

The state, however, would be paid a royalty for use of the material, which eventually would defray the cost of putting it in the computer.

Also, private law firms, as well as the state, have expressed an interest in purchasing the service. Michael Shaikun, a Louisville attorney, said five law firms in Louisville are interested.

Chief Justice Scott Reed of the state Supreme Court said he found the demonstration "very interesting."

Helesen said the system is already in use by several state appeals courts, as well as by three U.S. Circuit courts of appeals, and lawyers at the Internal Revenue Service and the Federal Trade Commission. He said there are "several hundred users in all."

Stephens said he would write letters to those who attended the demonstration and ask if their agencies would make use of such a computer.

If so, he said, "We'll do an analysis of the costs and see if we can find a way to get the funds."

He said his own office would make extensive use of the device.

"I think it's an excellent system," he said. "In fact, I'd say that within a very few years it would be effectively impossible to practice law without it."

"So much of legal research is just sitting and burning the midnight oil. That takes up so much of each lawyer's time that this would make every lawyer more efficient," he said.

Public Defender Farley said his office, too, would be interested in participating in any plan to obtain the computer service.

SPANISH PAINTING

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A major work by Spanish painter Bartolome Esteban Murillo has been acquired by the Toledo Museum of Art.

Otto Wittmann, museum director, described the 6-by-5 foot "Adoration of the Magi" as "the most important Spanish painting to be acquired by the Museum in almost two decades."

The painting is said to have been painted around 1650 in Seville. Murillo lived from 1618 to 1682, devoting most of his time to working for Seville's numerous churches and religious orders.
